

2024 UFCW Local 663 Educational Grant Application

UFCW Local 663 recognizes how important education is for the future growth of the young people in this country. We are awarding ten $1,000 educational grants to our members or their dependents to further their education. The winners will receive a one-time educational grant in the amount of $1,000 to be applied to the verified school for tuition, books, or room and board. The only qualification is that the student will be attending a college, university, junior college, or technical school. The ten winners will be randomly drawn at the July Executive Board meeting from the applications submitted, and winners will be notified in writing after the drawing has taken place.
